16TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

The Kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed (Matt 13:24-43)

Lord, you have given to the smallest of seeds whatever it needed to become the largest of plants in the garden.

Like the mustard tree, with the birds of the sky dwelling in its branches, you have given all of us everything we need to grow into your loving family, caring deeply for each other and for our environment with its air, branches and birds.

Help us grow. Nourish us with your grace.

Anne Osdieck

Mon Mass in English at 9:30am will still be celebrated private (also broadcast on Facebook). In order to help you prepare for these Masses we have drawn up the information below:

Before leaving the house please consider

- 1) Are you unwell? Do not come to Mass if you are displaying one or more symptoms of Coronavirus Covid-19, i.e. a new persistent cough, or a temperature, or loss of your sense of taste or smell

Mass if you have been specifically advised to "Shield".

3) Are you able to attend Mass on the weekday instead? The obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days is still suspended. We would encourage those people who are available to attend Mass during the weekday to join with us on the Facebook Page and leave space for those who can only come to a public Mass at the weekend.

4) People will be admitted to the church on a first come first served basis. There are 68 spaces for family, couple or single parishioner. Once the church is full we will close the doors.

5) The toilets will only be available in an emergency basis.

If you have considered the information above and are coming to Mass here is what to expect:

Entering the church

- As you approach the doors please be mindful of social distancing and keep 2 metres away from others who are not in your household or social bubble

- There will be stewards/ushers at the door who will advise you to use the hand gel sanitiser and guide you to where you will be seated.. There are other foot-powered alcohol hand gel dispensers available throughout the church, which we advise you to make ample use of.

- Pews, kneelers and doors will be cleaned after each Mass.

Holy Communion

- If you are not planning to join the Communion procession, please sit in the middle section of the pew.
