12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified?"

Do you not have faith?" [Mark 4:35-41]

Raging waves of discord break all around us and squalls whine through our lives.

We call, out of sinking boats, "We are going down! Jesus, save us!"

O calm our storms. "Quiet! Be still," we long to hear you say!

*Give us faith to know that in sunny days or climate crisis, wars,
or homelessness, or housed and fed well,
you never leave our boats.*

Make our life holy, Lord of wind and sea.

Anne Osdieck

Knock to host the first Saint Thérèse's International Day Saint Thérèse – patroness of all missionaries and priests – first ever International Day on 14 July this year. This sacred day will be celebrated at the International Eucharistic and Marian Shrine of Knock, and all are welcome. Looking forward to this celebration, Father Richard Gibbons, parish priest of Knock and rector of the Shrine, said, "we look forward to the celebration of the first Saint Thérèse International Day. This new pilgrimage day celebrates the Little Flower, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, whose simple spirituality is called the 'Little Way'. It is fitting that this new International Day for Saint Thérèse should take place here at Ireland's International Eucharistic and Marian Shrine, as 'Tranquilla' Carmelite Monastery is located adjacent to the Shrine, and it is blessing to have such a wonderful connection with Saint Thérèse's spirituality. We hope that all pilgrims attending this day will find it to be spiritually uplifting." For more information on the International Day of Saint Thérèse, contact the organisers through email at stthereseday@aol.com, by calling +353 89 272 6765 or through the Facebook page.
